FINISH FULLY CHARGED

ECO FRIENDLY - BATTERY FREE

BODY BIKE SMART®+ is equipped with a generator ensuring a battery-free, eco-friendly and self-sustaining workout. The power generated by the user allows for data transfer via ANT₊ and Bluetooth®, and it supports SMART Charge. Connect your phone to the bike with your USB cable, and start pedalling.

ACCURATE WATT MEASUREMENT

BODY BIKE SMART®+ uses DIRECT FORCE MEASUREMENT to measure the power output, which ensures that what you will see on your display is THE REAL DEAL. This accurate measurement is achieved through the use of a smart sensor, that works similar to a scale. So the sensor measures the actual force you exert when you are adding tension. No guesswork or estimations.

CHARGE RECHARGE

BODY BIKE SMART®+ features a revolutionary innovation: SMART Charge. You literally produce your own power with every pedal stroke you take. And the harder you pedal the more power you produce. Power to recharge your mind, power to recharge your body, and power to charge your phone.

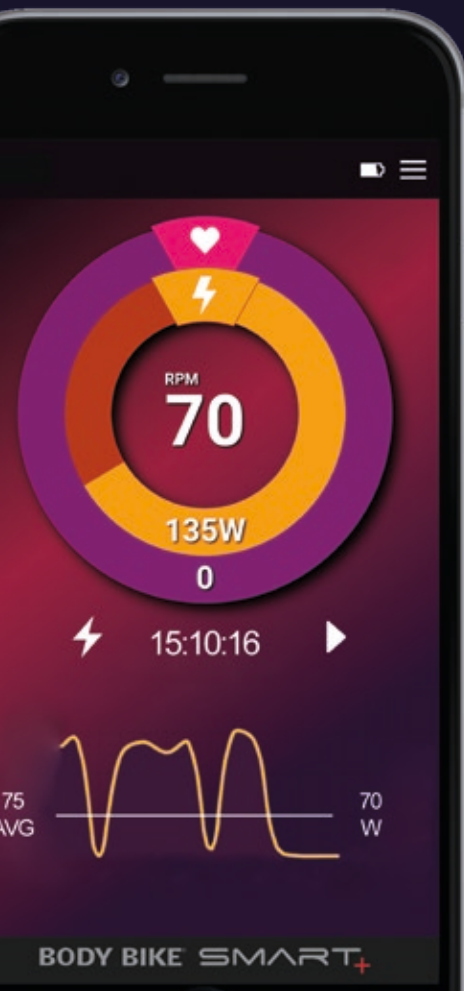

Data is hot. But it can also be very personal and private. So whether you want to share your workout, or keep it to yourself: you choose what happens with your data.

We don't collect your data or have access to it. It's completely yours. Choose to connect your data to Google Fit and share it on social media. It's all in your hands.

Some connections may be visible to the naked eye, while some are not.
BODY BIKE SMART®+ features both
Bluetooth® and ANT+ wireless connection.

COMPATIBLE WITH APPS AND DEVICES

Most of the personal training apps available for your smartphone offer Bluetooth connectivity - some also ANT+. It means that you can connect BODY BIKE SMART®+ to virtually every training app and device that offers one of these two types of connectivity. The possibilities for connection are endless.
